INGREDIENTS

- 0.6Lb Saint Jean truffle ravioles
- 1 large leek
- 1.4oz Parmesan PDO
- 100ml single cream
- 0.7oz butter
- Drizzle of neutral oil
- Salt
- Pepper

DIRECTIONS

PRÉPARATION

Caramelized leek pieces:

- Wash the leek, remove the roots and cut 6x1.5inch-thick pieces starting from the base of the leek
- In a hot pan with the neutral oil, stand the leek pieces up vertically and cook for a few minutes on each end until they are golden brown
- Add a piece of butter towards the end and continue cooking over a medium heat for a few minutes. The leek should be soft. Keep warm.

Softened leeks:

- Finely chop the remaining leek. Keep a few very finely chopped pieces of raw leek to one side
- Put a piece of butter, a glass of water, a little salt and the chopped leek in a frying pan. Cover and cook for 15 minutes
- Remove the lid and continue cooking until all the water has evaporated. Keep warm.

Parmesan cream:

- In a saucepan, combine the cream, the grated parmesan and 1oz of water.
- Bring to a boil. Add the leek fondue to the parmesan cream and keep warm. Ravioles :
- Cook the frozen truffle ravioles in unsalted simmering water
- After 2 minutes, remove the ravioles with a slotted spoon and add them to the Parmesan and leek cream

Plating:

- Put the ravioles in their Parmesan and leek sauce in the center of the plate
- Put 3 caramelized leek pieces on top, sprinkle with some finely chopped raw leek. Finish with a few Parmesan shavings. Season with pepper.
